ROYAL Baking Powder is indispensable to the preparation of the finest cake, hot-breads, rolls and muffins.

Housekeepers are sometimes importuned to buy other powders because they are "cheap."

Housekeepers should stop and think. If such powders are lower priced, are they not inferior?

Is it economy to spoil your digestion to save a few pennies?

The "Royal Baker and Pastry Cook" — containing over 800 most practical and valuable cooking receipts — free to every patron. Send postal card with your full address.

Alum is used in some baking powders and in most of the so-called phosphate powders, because it is cheap, and makes a cheaper powder. But alum is a corrosive poison which, taken in food, acts injuriously upon the stomach, liver and kidneys.

TERPSICHOOREAN CARNIVAL.

Fully Twenty-Five Couples in Fancy Dress.

Prof. R. L. Northcutt, who for the past seven winters has conducted a dancing school in our city, gave his farewell dance to his class last Friday night at the armory.

Mr. Northcutt's classes are always large and successful and his closing dance is always looked forward to with great eagerness. This dance outdid all of his former efforts in beauty as well as in a financial way.

The armory was very beautifully decorated. The stage on which the fancy dances took place looked especially pretty and attractive.

The hall was literally packed with spectators; indeed, the crowd was so large that there was little space left for dancing.

The Ocala House Orchestra furnished the music.

At 8:30 o'clock the march was begun, led by Phil Robinson and Edna Culverhouse. There were twenty-five couples of little folks, and some older ones, dressed in all sorts and descriptions of fancy costumes. Each and every one looked well and deserves special notice, but space forbids.

The first on the program after the march was a song and character dance, "Just Because She Made Them Goo Goo Eyes," by Edna Culverhouse, who is one of the prettiest little fancy dancers in the city. She also danced most gracefully the Spanish castanet dance.

The reception and cake walk to all the nations by Uncle Sam was unique and well rendered. Little Willie Bullock, as Uncle Sam, the master of ceremonies, couldn't be beat.

The "Oriental Tea Party," with national song of Japan, by about fifteen little girls, was excellent.

The prettiest dance of the evening was the Parisian skirt dance by Hope Robinson, Sara Davis and Edna Culverhouse, dressed respectively in lovely costumes of white, yellow and red tissue paper. These three dainty little misses are very clever and graceful dancers and are always admired.

"The Midsummer Night's Dream," or dance of the fairies, by seven little girls in white gauze dresses with silver spangles, was exceptionally pretty and made one think they had been transported to fairyland.

The most mirth-producing dance was the one entitled "Looking Backward," by eight girls. They were dressed as Irish servants, had false faces on the back of their heads, tied on with bandanna handkerchiefs. Their hair was combed down over their faces, and in this way appeared to be dancing backward. The dancers, by their queer antics, created lots of fun and a storm of applause.

"Snap Shots from Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show" was considered one of the very best numbers. At the back of the stage were two Indian wigwags, and in the background a camp fire was burning. The lights in the hall were turned out for this dance. Marion Galloway and Sara Davis dressed as squaws, and Philip and Ralph Robinson, Morris Smith, John Pelot, Brantley Weathers and Louis Chazal, in the dress of Indian braves, danced an Indian war dance. The fires burning in the background gave a very weird aspect to this dance.

The first part of the program closed with the Alabama cake walk, and after a short intermission twelve dances were played in which the spectators were allowed to participate.

It was almost two o'clock when "Home, Sweet Home" was played and the fancy dress ball was only a pleasant memory.

Mr. Northcutt left Monday afternoon for Gainesville where he will teach a class for the next two months.

A Good Cough Medicine for Children.

"I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says F. P. Moran, a well known and popular baker of Petersburg, Va. "We have given it to our children when troubled with bad coughs, also whooping cough, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. It was recommended to me by a druggist as the best cough medicine for children, as it contained no opium or other harmful drug." Sold by the Anti-Monopoly Drug Store.

THE MONTEZUMA SOLD.

There seems to be a lively activity in hotel property in our city.

Last week we noted the sale of the Ocala House, one of the best paying of the Plant System hotels, to Mr. J. F. Edwards.

This week we note the sale of the Montezuma, owned by an English syndicate, to Mr. John P. Galloway.

The Montezuma was built by Mr. James A. Harris about the year 1885, at a cost of $40,000, and has been run as a hotel under various managements since that date.

It has recently been overhauled and put in thorough order by its late owners; the repairs consisting of a new tin roof, new floors in some of the first story rooms, and new gas and sewer pipes.

The new purchaser, Mr. Galloway, intends making still more repairs and improvements, among which will be a piazza running the entire length of the rear, a handsome picket fence and the grounds beautified.

Mr. Galloway intends to make it one of the most attractive places in the city.

It will be placed under excellent management and run all-the-year-round at the popular price of $2 per day.

Mr. Galloway was for a long time sheriff of Lake county, and was easily the most popular man in that whole section of country. He has a manner of drawing friends to him, and it is believed that he will make a popular landlord.

He says that he feels sure of keeping his house full all the year round, and is intensely pleased with his purchase.
